

Laura and I recently had the joy of taking more students to the Denver Christmas Conference from our Auraria campus than any previous year. Our 16 students joined about 1000 others only a mile or so from our house for 5 days of Bible teaching, fellowship, worship music, and training hosted by CRU. One thing God used to get so many students there was the generous scholarship money that many of you provided. We thank God for your partnership in reaching this generation with the Gospel message and mission of Jesus Christ.

The student photos on the right illustrate their lives “before & after” committing their life to Jesus. These photos were taken at DCC and then posted on the students’ Facebook profile to generate questions and discussions from non-Christian friends.

Please pray for them. Evan (top left) as he tries to reach out to the students in the P.E. building to reach athletes for Christ. Kristen (top center) as she helps lead a Bible study in the Student Lofts downtown. Kaylee (second row, far left) as she disciples younger girls 1 on 1. Nick (center) as he helps to lead the Bible study in the Student lofts, and in Campus Village apartments. Bree (R. of Nick) as she helps to lead the Bible study in the Campus Village apartments. Rachel (bottom row center) as she is reaching out to Muslim students for Christ, and Patrick (bottom right) who is helping lead the Bible study in the student lofts. MPM Denver staff are coming alongside and coaching these students in these areas of ministry.

Please also pray for Laura and I as we are in the midst of our big transition. Jesse and Rhonda Denison have reported to our Denver team and over the next 2-4 weeks we will be training them, and then they will assume our roles as the Director, and the Staff Women’s Director. We are looking forward to our new leadership roles with Master Plan. To read more about our transition go to TheKrokosFamily.com/the-transition

This summer Laura and I will be directing our annual Crush Fear summer project. This will be MPM’s 6th year of this two week Great Commission training project for college students. It is filled with Rocky Mountain adventure and has the goal of preparing students to reach and influence the world for Christ. If you know a young person who might like to come to Durango, CO this May 18th-31st, send them to CrushFear.com to learn more and apply.
